Master Class Description

Rockin'/Breakin'/Hip-Hop with YNot of Rock Steady Crew

“Breaking” is one of the core elements of hip hop dance. The form was developed on the streets of New York by mostly Latino and African-American dancers. Original Breakin' style called 'Freestyle Rockin', which is a vertical dance done before hitting the ground, is based on original Latin and African-American social dances. Dances like THE RUMBA, MAMBO, THE CHARLESTON, THE BOOGALU, THE SHING A LING, and THE HUSTLE just to name a few. This class will show how to take these classic dances and add the B-Boy/B-girl 70's Bronx flavor to it. Students will gain a valuable understanding and appreciation of the improvisational nature of this dance form while learning basic movements and terminology. Students will complete this class equipped with knowledge of the dances' music, history, and culture, which are key to the understanding of the dance form.
